

GENERAL OBJECTIVE:

Contribution and Promotion of sustainable development of agricultural and rural areas all over the world

SPECIFIC OBJECTIVE 1 Rural youth achieves autonomy working on sustainable and solidarity economy
Results	1.1. Employments are created in rural areas and reduce exodus of young people 1.2. Young people set up projects of diversified and organic production, promoting Food Sovereignty 1.3. Young farmers deny the use of GMOs 1.4. Groups of solidarity production, services and trade are created 1.5. Best practices are spread among MIJARC members
Activities	Activities at all levels <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Active working groups on food sovereignty and solidarity economy (World Team and continental level) ◆ Database on best projects and practices (WT and continental level) ◆ Fundraising for solidarity economy projects (WT, continental and national level) ◆ Sensibilisation on the negative aspects of GMOs (WT, Asia, Latin America, Europe and national level) ◆ Campaign and negotiation with local and/or national governments on access to land for young people (WT, Africa, Asia, Latin America and national level) ◆ Diagnosis of territories (Asia, Latin America and national level) Activities at national level <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Creation of local markets ◆ Creation of local self-help groups ◆ Promotion for the consumption of local products ◆ Implementation of productive projects in agriculture, agroindustry and handicraft ◆ Cultural and entertainment events for young people in rural areas ◆ Seed banks and cereal banks

SPECIFIC OBJECTIVE 2 MIJARC implements global/holistic education to form responsible and competent rural men and women
Results	2.1. Illiteracy among rural men and women has been reduced 2.2. MIJARC members have greater awareness on food sovereignty, protection of environment and social economy 2.3. Young people have greater technical capacities 2.4. Men and women are aware of the necessity of equal rights and duties between them and put into practice the gender equality
Activities	Activities at all levels <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Trainings for young people on project elaboration and management

	(WT, continental and national level) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Elaboration of training materials on the topics of globalization, GMOs, climate change, gender equality, etc. (WT, continental and national level) ◆ Exchanges of experiences between MIJARC movements (WT, continental and national level) ◆ Promotion of non formal education (WT, continental and national level) Specific activities for the different continents <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Rural itinerant community schools (Latin America) ◆ Literacy courses in rural areas (Africa) ◆ Awareness on health and hygienic issues. (Asia) Activities at national level <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Trainings for young people on processing and conservation of agricultural products ◆ Workshops on children rights and care, sexual education, drugs, etc. ◆ Trainings on the use of medias
--	--

SPECIFIC OBJECTIVE 3
MIJARC and rural youth participate in decision making processes at all levels
Results	3.1. Needs and concerns of youth are taken into account by governments and other organizations 3.2. Youth participates in decision making civil bodies and social life 3.3. MIJARC does active networking projects with other NGOs
Activities	Activities at all levels <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Participation in the World Social Forum and other summits (WT and continental level) ◆ Participation in national and international forums and platforms (WT and continental level) ◆ Constitution and consolidation of alliances and networks with other regional, national and international organizations (WT, continental and national level) ◆ Intervention and participation in continental and international institutions (IPC, FAO, OIT, UNESCO, etc.) (WT, continental and national level) ◆ Lobbying against agrofuels, GMOs, world trade liberalization, etc. (WT, continental and national level) Activities at national level <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Promotion of rural youth on contesting for elections ◆ Workshops on the importance of political participation, democracy and citizenship

SPECIFIC OBJECTIVE 4
Environmental protection is taken as a national policy
Results	4.1. MIJARC is an eco-friendly movement 4.2. MIJARC movements are well equipped and prepared to face natural calamities
Activities	Activities at all levels <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Promotion of alternative energies and the reduction of energy consumption (WT, Latin America, Asia, Europe) Activities at national level <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Training and awareness programs on rejuvenation of environment ◆ Reforestation programs ◆ Rain water harvesting programs and water management ◆ Disaster management cells ◆ Formation of Eco-clubs

SPECIFIC OBJECTIVE 5
Women are empowered at all levels in relation with their rights and their participation to take leadership
Results	5.1. Gender equality is reached within MIJARC in all the levels down to grassroots 5.2. Women and men belonging to the MIJARC promote gender equality in social and political life
Activities	Activities at all levels <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Organization of women commissions (Asia, Africa, Europe and national level) ◆ Regular communication between the world office and women representatives (WT, continental and national level) ◆ Participation and campaigning in the International Women's Day and International Rural Women's Day (WT, continental and national level) ◆ Communication on women's productive projects through MIJARC News (WT, Asia, Africa, Latin America) ◆ Participation in platforms and networks of women activists and NGOs (WT, continental and national level) Activities at national level <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Mobilization an awareness campaign for women's vote, in electoral periods (Asia, Africa and Latin America) ◆ Awareness programs on women rights and laws (Asia, Africa and Latin America) ◆ Promotion of women self-help-groups (Asia, Africa and Latin America)

SPECIFIC OBJECTIVE 6
MIJARC movement is stronger at all levels
Results	6.1. Finances are consolidated at all levels 6.2. MIJARC staff and capacities are consolidated 6.3. MIJARC ensures effective communication, translations, follow up and regular accompaniment of continents and movements 6.4. Duties, responsibilities and representation are equally divided between gender 6.5. National and continental movements share experiences and information
Activities	Activities at all levels <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Communication plan (WT) ◆ MIJARC news 3 times a year and maximization of the subscription (WT) ◆ Regularly updated homepage (WT and continental level) ◆ Promotion of MIJARC activities and promotion of the Solidarity Fund through various mass medias (WT, continental and national level) ◆ Spread statutes and internal regulation within the movements (WT and continental level) ◆ Revision of statutes (WT, continental and national level) ◆ Frequent visits, follow up and communication (WT and continental level) ◆ Language courses for coordinators and World Team (WT and continental level) ◆ Fundraising (WT, continental and national level) ◆ Writing of concrete programs rather than projects (WT, Asia and Africa) ◆ Exchanges and partnership between movements (WT, continental and national level) ◆ Celebration and participation in common activities like MIJARC Day (WT, Asia, Africa and Latin America) ◆ Trainings of chaplain and collaborators (WT, Asia and Latin America) ◆ Publication of Chaplains and Adult Collaborators guidelines and training manual (WT)